Ancient Monuments at Srirangapatna rejuvenated

The NSS day is celebrated to commemorate the founding of the NSS way back in 1969. This coincides with the birth centenary of Mahatma Gandhi. Thenceforward, the NSS resolved to revive society conforming to the principles of servitude. On occasion of NSS day, the NSS unit revived and restored two ancient monuments on Mysore – Bangalore Highway. The Pavilion is believed to be built in 1610 CE during the period of Wodeyars, the Mysore royal. While the tank was covered with vines and undergrowth, they were cleared off; severed by the NSS volunteers and the teaching fraternity alike. Moreover, they disilted the water indeed.

Outcomes:

- The student had a closer look at the heritage of the region
- He was able to understand the Myth and folklore associated to the monument in question
- He/she was able master the technical know-how of conserving a monument
