INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY

The Department of Physical Education in association with the National Service Scheme, UOM, Mysuru, under the initiative of IQAC, had organised and celebrated 'International Yoga Day' by live streaming it on YouTube on 22nd June 2020, at 11:00 am. The students of the college were sent a link to participate in the live celebration of International Yoga day. Ms. Nikita of I B.com and Ms. Anusha Honnayya of IBCA, performed various asanas on live streaming of YouTube and the participants from their homes joined them in performing the various asanas. The teaching and non-teaching staff of both PU and Degree College, participated in the live celebrations of the yoga day. This was a unique celebration and experience for the students as they had to take part in it from their homes and could not make it to college, because of the testing times of covid-19. The technology was used in the celebration of international yoga day and it was a great success.

Voluntary Blood Donation Camp marks Martyrs' Day

Mysuru, Feb. 2- Seshadripuram Degree College, NSS Unit and Youth Red Cross Unit in association with Blood Bank, K.R. Hospital, Mysuru and District AIDS Prevention Control Unit had organised a Voluntary Blood Donation Camp to commemorate the 'Martyrs Day' on Jan.30 in the College campus.

Dr. B.S. Manjunath, Blood Bank Officer, K.R. Hospital Blood Bank, who was the chief guest, emphasised the importance of blood donation, as there is an acute shortage of blood supply due to COVID pandemic situation in the world.

Stating that an individual can save three precious lives by donating blood, he gave a call for youngsters to come forward and donate blood regularly.

Dr. M.B. Suresh Coordinator,

NSS Unit, University of Mysore, who was the guest of honour, suggested the students to participate actively in such camps.

Totally 80 units of blood was collected by the students, staff, public and the alumni on the occasion.

Prof. K. Sowmya Erappa, Principal, Seshadripuram Degree College, Hebbal Ring Road, Mysuru, along with teaching faculty members, non-teaching staff and students were present at the programme, according to a press release.

Voluntary blood donation camp organized

The duty of the NSS unit embodies not only social activities but includes those activities related to health. Every mankind strives for his sustenance and healthy well-being. Health has become a prime concern for the NSS – social services apart. On this cause, it initiated a voluntary blood donation camp marking the seventy-third death anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. This day is known by the name sarvodaya day (Martyrs' day). Dr. BS Manjunath, director, bloodbank, KR Hospital inaugurated the camp. The KR Hospital (Government medical college) Mysuru, associated with the NSS unit of Seshadripuram Degree College to actualize this event. In the end, eighty units of blood have been mobilized.

Outcomes of the program:

- The NSS unit was able to collect 80 Units of blood
- The volunteers understood the importance of servitude
- Of the Presumption that 80 units of blood would save many.
