18.5 Governance

i. Organizational chart

ii. Grievance Redressal mechanism for Faculty, staff and students

A grievance can be any type of i.e. unjust behaviour, stalking, use of pretext to do wrong things, dissatisfaction, displeasure, the bad perception among the employee and the students. The institution believes that grievances led by the employees and students should be addressed with a proper mechanism. The institution has accepted it as a policy to redress every form of grievance with great sensitivity. The institution envisions comprehensive development of the organization by addressing all sorts of complaints. Any complaint or grievance related to sexual harassment, the outrage of modesty of women and ragging is handled with extra sensitivity. For that organization frame several committees to solve every sort of complexity with utmost care.

The college has created a Grievance redressal procedure to resolve individual and group grievances of a general character, as well as those linked to ragging and sexual harassment of the college's students and employees. As per the UGC's and University of Mysore norms and regulations, College Grievance Redressal Committee has been formed with the representations of various stakeholders to deliver justice to complainers.
