Testimonials

Yashwanth K S, BCA(2024-25)

I am proud to be a part of this college. The institution provides not only quality education but also encourages students to explore their talents through various academic and extracurricular activities. The college has provided me with wonderful opportunities to organize and participate in major events, enhancing my leadership and teamwork skills. I am thankful to be part of this institution.

Chiranth T R, B.Com(2024-25)

I am truly grateful to my college for providing me with a platform to grow both academically and personally. During my time here, I not only gained subject knowledge but also developed essential skills such as communication, leadership, teamwork, time management, and problem-solving. The faculty members have always been supportive, approachable, and encouraging, guiding me at every step.

Durga Prasad K, BBA(2024-25)

The college gives equal importance to academics, extracurricular activities, sports, NSS, and NCC, which helps in overall personality and leadership development. Students get many opportunities to learn, participate, and build confidence through various activities and events. The placement training and career guidance offered by the college also help students prepare well for their future.

Ayush B, BCA (2024-25)

College life here has shaped me in many positive ways. The faculty members were always supportive and approachable, making learning comfortable and inspiring. Alongside academics, the bond with friends and the enjoyable moments on campus created memories I will always value.

Punyamrutha B S, B.Com

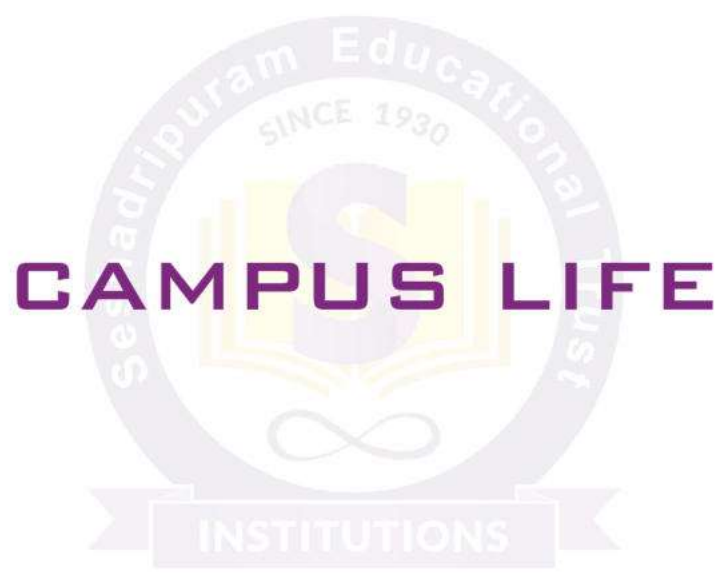

My degree college has played a very important role in shaping my academic and personal growth. The supportive faculty, encouraging environment, and various opportunities helped me build confidence and discover my strengths. Beyond studies, I created unforgettable memories and lifelong friendships that I will always cherish. The college not only focused on education but also on overall development through events and activities.

Adithya K, BBA (2024-25)

The journey was not just about earning a degree, but about developing myself academically, professionally, and personally. The college provided a strong academic foundation in subjects like Finance, Marketing, Human Resource Management, and Business Analytics. The faculty members were highly supportive, knowledgeable, and always approachable.
